SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. John M. Cannon entertained the Social Club Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Daisy Huey, of Rock Hill. During the afternoon a number of games of Forty Two were played. Misses Polly Prentiss and Carol Roper served a delicious sweet course with coffee after the games were played.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. W. B. Clarke entertained the members of the Presbyterian church choir in a very delightful and substantial manner. A sumptuous turkey supper was served, the table being fairly covered with tempting things to eat. Reparing to the parlor an enjoyable evening was spent playing games, chief among which was that old time frolic "Moving the Kitchen Furniture". The members of the choir present were Mrs. M. L. Roper, organist, Mesdames W. R. McCuen, C. F. Rankin, H. K. Alken, J. H. Teague, A. C. Todd, Misses Mary Todd, Henry Wright, Messrs. Jno. N. Wright, E. H. Wilkes, Edward McCrady, W. R. McCuen and S. B. Lapsley, Mr. W. C. Barton and Mrs. E. H. Wilkes were also members of the invited party.

Yesterday morning Mrs. R. E. Hughes delightfully entertained at bridge in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Orlene Milliken, of New York. Tables were prepared for twelve and a very enjoyable forenoon was spent playing. A delicious salad course was served after the games.

Davis-Roper Co. Entertains.

As a compliment to the clerks in their big department store, Davis-Roper Company was the host at a magnificent turkey dinner last Thursday afternoon at 7 o'clock. The tables were spread in the rear end of the store, where the guests were without any trouble made to feel thoroughly at home. The informality of the occasion and the general good feeling that pervaded made it as enjoyable an occasion as could well be had. As a most substantial assistant to these in making the dinner pleasant, the hosts had prepared a supper that will go down in history as an appetite's best friend. There were turkey, and ham, oysters in several disguises, chicken salad, potatoes, pickles, olives, celery and a whole raft of other delicacies. For dessert there were ice cream and cake and several speeches.

Dr. D. A. Davis acted as toastmaster, and after introducing himself, made a few appropriate remarks about the business in general and about his pleasure in having such a fine bunch of clerks to entertain. He then introduced Mr. C. H. Roper who talked most entertainingly about the history of the company and those who had been with the store in the past years. He also spoke very feelingly of the valuable assistance the proprietors of the store had received from the clerks and assured them that it was through their interest in the store and their good help that had made the business the success that it has been. Mr. McAllister was then called upon and in a few well-selected and apt words thanked the hosts and promised for his department a continuance of their best efforts. Following Mr. McAllister, the toastmaster and all the balance called for Mr. Fleming Smith, who spoke these few but disastrous words "I am too full for utterance." This broke up the party.

HARMONY HAIR BEAUTIFIER

Is just what its name implies.—Just to make the hair glossy, lustrous, more beautiful.—Just to make it easier to dress, and more natural to fall easily and gracefully into the wavy lines and folds of the coiffure.

It leaves a delightful fresh and cool effect, and a lingering, delicate perfume. Will not change or darken the color. Contains no oil; therefore doesn't leave the hair sticky or stringy. Simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. But first, make sure that your hair and scalp are clean, by using

Harmony Shampoo

—A liquid shampoo to keep the hair clean, soft, smooth and beautiful. It gives an instantaneous, rich, foaming lather, penetrating to every part of the hair and scalp. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. It leaves no lumps or stickiness.—Just a refreshing sense of cool, sweet cleanliness.—Just a dainty, pleasant and clean fragrance.

—Both in odd-shaped ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops.
